Jake Slack, Highway Superintendent stated the plow trucks are all serviced and ready for the winter months. The brush hog head was put on and Jake will be sending the crew out to tend to anything needed to be trimmed.

Councilman Dan Baker complimented Jake and his crew for keeping our town roads in good standing. There were no issues reported from the last storm of anyone having water drainage problems.

Old Business:

Jake also reported the concern that was brought to the town by Scott Friedman has been rectified. A diversion ditch is now in place and is allowing the water to flow in a better direction.

New Business:

Resident Robert Hodges had questions for the supervisor, councilmembers and attorney regarding parceling out his property in the future.

Rick Gummo sent in his letter of retirement after 21 ½ years of service. Jake is planning on retiring on December 17th. No decision will be made for a replacement until a formal letter is received from Jake that he is retiring.

Councilman Whittaker questioned if anyone had raised concern regarding our phone system having issues. Renny will contact Jim from Northeast Data to check the phone system for any problems.

Andy Jackson had concerns about the lights reflecting from the building when coming Cherry Valley Hill Rd. making visibility difficult at times.

Rick Cicereli explained what he is trying to accomplish with the necessary updates needed to take place to get the towns technology in better working condition.
